by Esther Lin (SMVHS)

Hello guys!!My name is Esther, and I'll introduce the Kaohsiung city for you.

Kaohsiung is located in southern Taiwan. It is one of the six metropolitan cities. Now it turns into Metropolitan Kaohsiung. Kaohsiung is famous for its harbor. It is a beautiful place in Taiwan because we have mountains, rivers and sea.

There are many famous attractions are by the sea, like Qijin, Xiziwan or the canal named "Love River."

You need to take the ferry or drive to outlying island Qijin. There are many historic attractions, for example, Cihou Fort and Cihou Lighthouse--both buildings are about one or two hundred years old.

Then you can take a ferry boat back and go to Pier Number 2, which is an art district, many young people will go there watch an exhibition or go to bazaar.

There are many delicious foods in the Love River area, and we have many beautiful places can take a photo. It's a good place to go when you want to relax.

If you go further to Metropolitan Kaohsiung, there are some special places like 美濃 or 茂林. You can enjoy the Hakka culture in 美濃 , and then 茂林 is an aboriginal place where you can look into Kaohsiung.
